Introduction and overview of BMJ's proposal

BMJ is committed to develop and nurture our relationship with AIIMS Deoghar . BMJ share a commitment to the open access research publication model and wish to facilitate its wider adoption globally.

BMJ is therefore grateful for this opportunity to provide this Read and Publish proposal which will help

- | | |
|---|--|
| → manage their transition towards the open access publication of all their research outputs | → remove the burden of publishing fees from individual authors |
|---|--|

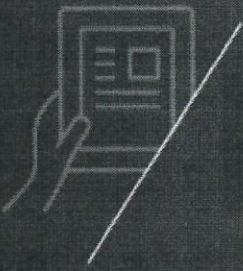

Further, BMJ believes that this agreement will support to maximise both its impact on open access publishing and the real-world impact of their research outputs on the medical evidence base and clinical practice globally.

This document provides a comprehensive overview of our offer, an insight into our strengths as a publisher, and a clear vision for a successful alliance.

Immediate benefits to AIIMS Deoghar :

- A. A switch to 100% open access publication for all original research papers submitted by your members / researchers/ staff/ healthcare professionals within the contract period specified above, and subsequently accepted for publication by any BMJ journal.
- B. No Article Processing Charges payable for any original research papers submitted by members/ researchers/ staff/ healthcare professionals within the contract period specified above, and subsequently accepted for publication by any BMJ journal.
- C. Reduced administration and costs associated with the submission, acceptance and publication of original research articles.
- D. Your research outputs become more widely available to researchers, clinicians and others without access being restricted to paying subscribers or logged-in users. This will drive citations of these research outputs and their real world impact in clinical practice.

PROPRIETARY ARTICLE CERTIFICATE

It is certified that the items BMJ Case Report (CR) Fellowship and BMJ Open Access (OA) Membership along with BMJ Case Reports required in the P-2 form should be procured from British Medical Journal (BMJ).

To the best of my knowledge, the above-mentioned items are proprietary in nature and are supplied exclusively by British Medical Journal (BMJ), who is the sole provider/authorized source for these services.

Similar items manufactured by other firm(s) shall not be suitable for our purpose for the following reasons:-

- BMJ journals are published by BMJ Publishing Group Ltd., a wholly owned subsidiary of the British Medical Association (BMA), and are therefore proprietary in nature.
